

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

United States of America,

Plaintiff,

Case No. 16-20322

v.

William Frank Snody,

Hon. Judith E. Levy

United States District Judge

Defendant.

United States of America's Response to Defendant's Motion for Reconsideration

Following the Court's decision denying Snody's motion for compassionate release without prejudice, Snody's family purchased a residence for him to reside in after his release.

The government continues to oppose Snody's request for compassionate release for the reasons outlined in its original and supplemental response to Snody's motion. If the Court remains inclined to release Snody if it determines that Snody's proposed placement is acceptable, the government requests that the Court hold a hearing wherein the probation department can confirm on the record that they approve of Snody's proposed residence and that there are no encumbrances that prevent registered sex offenders from residing at that location or within that condominium complex.

Respectfully Submitted,

MATTHEW SCHNEIDER
United States Attorney
